Acarix presents at Naventus Health Care Summit 2022

Helen Ljungdahl Round, President and CEO of Acarix AB (publ), will present at the Naventus Health Care Summit in Stockholm on May 10, 2022.

Acarix is one of twelve leading companies within the Healthcare sector to present their views on the present trends in precision medicine and latest innovative technological developments in life science.

Acarix is at the forefront of AI-powered acoustic diagnostic technologies in cardiology. The novel CADScor®System is designed for rapid assessment in patients with stable chest pain and suspected CAD. Within 10 minutes, those with low risk can be ruled out with 96% certainty. Millions of people experience chest pain annually and many undergo lengthy diagnostic assessments. As many as 9 out of 10 are found to not have CAD, putting an unnecessary burden on the health care systems and patients. The CADScor®System has CE-marking and is commercially available in Europe. With the FDA De Novo clearance and reimbursement approval, the company is now entering a new expansion phase with the launch in the US.

This event is a perfect opportunity to learn about the latest market updates technological innovations within the Healthcare sector. The event is hosted by Naventus & Partners live from Spegelsalen, Grand Hôtel in Stockholm with opportunities to join virtually.
